

Proton-Electrotex, JSC

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Proton-Electrotex, JSC is a company developing and manufacturing bipolar power semiconductors, i.e. diodes and thyristors in hockey pack, stud and module packages as well as power assemblies on the base of these devices. Products of our company are widely represented at the world market of the power electronics and our customers hold our devices in respect.

We are responsible for environmental conditions before the society, future generations and employees of our company and we treat the environmental activity as an integral part of our business focused on the long term success.

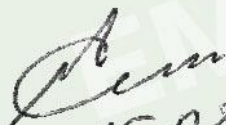

The main goal in environmental sphere:

Minimization of the negative influence on the environment, health advocacy of our company's employees and people of our city.

KEY ISSUES OF ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY:

- To improve the management of processes having influence on the environment.
- To prevent the pollution of the environment or to minimize it within specified requirements
- To use power and nature resources rationally
- To trace environmental moments at all levels of the product life cycle: designing, planning and manufacturing
- To manage the production process in accordance with the requirements of Russian Federation current legislation, norms and regulations in the field of the environment protection and safety
- To provide with technical and environmental safety by means of production modernization and retooling
- To improve knowledge, self-control and responsibility of our employees concerning the issues of environmental protection
- To support company's infrastructure in accordance with emergency situation prevention and to hold all services being ready to eliminate these situations
- To associate in the spirit of co-operation with business partners, suppliers, consumers and authorized bodies in the field of environmental protection
- To improve continuously working conditions of employees
- To improve continuously Environmental Management System that is considered to be an important part of common management system of the company, using the international standard ISO 14001:2004 as a management tool

General Director

15.02.2008

Alexander Semenov